Mint State Type Moves Higher Buying Fresh Material Is Difficult

The rare coin market is currently very healthy. Optimism is flowing with dealers very pleased with the current market and its immediate future. Dealers tell us that their customer base is growing as is the number of customer want lists that they are trying to fill. Still, the need for rare coins remains the number one problem for dealers. Buying rare coins is of utmost importance for keeping a business flourishing, especially when the demand for coins is strong and growing. Dealers know that they can easily make sales today but they need to have the product to sell or that transaction will just be placed on hold. We know that the collector/investor demand for rare coins is exceptionally strong today, even for single coins selling at the $10,000 and higher level. Dealers are in a bind because the need to buy coins is growing every day and they are having a very difficult time locating and buying the coins on their customer's want lists. Show after show they tell us that they have want lists of coins to buy but fall short at satisfying that demand. Consequently, we see a very strong sight-unseen market as dealers aggressively increase their sight-unseen Bids. Specific demand is seen with some Bids being very bold, in one case increasing 50 percent. Many dealers are currently attending the May 16-18 Arizona Coin Expo in Phoenix for the main purpose of buying fresh material.

We will examine several areas of the sight-unseen market that are receiving a significant amount of attention from dealers. We begin with Mint State Type because it has strong collector/investor demand today, but mainly because it is an area that dealers are targeting this week with significant Bid increases. Flying Eagle Cents are usually a must for collector/investors because the design and denomination are extremely popular. Increases are seen in grades MS62 thru MS65 because at these grade levels, Flying Eagle Cents are very affordable for most buyers. Indian Cents and Two Cent pieces are also gaining as dealers try to offer their customers quality coins that represent a good value. Liberty Nickels are up with dealers trying to buy MS65 thru MS67 examples. We see that both the No Cent and With Cent varieties are needed. The Barber coinage denominations are also a must for dealers trying to help collectors complete Type sets. Increases are seen in Barber Dimes, Quarters and Half Dollars in MS63 thru MS65. Several dealers believe that Trade Dollars in the lower Mint State Grades are undervalued and consequently, they have increased their Bids accordingly. Mint State Gold Type is also realizing selected, strong increases with a few minus signs too. High Reliefs are up in all grades, another indication of high dollar amount coins readily selling today. We also see that $20 Saints and Type III Libs are up in several Mint State grades. Saints and Libs are receiving both numismatic and bullion related demand.

By now, you are probably wondering what issue jumped 50 percent in Bid. Would you believe it is found in the Mercury Dime series? We were mildly surprised as it was undervalued so Bid soared 50 percent to $420 for a 1942-S in NGC MS67 FB. The Buffalo Nickel series has yet to have its strong demand satisfied. So again this week, dealers have slightly increased Bids for many dates in MS65 and better. However, the MS65 1915-D and the MS66 1925 received very strong 35 and 22 percentage increases respectively. The Peace Dollar series has recently seen strong demand for better dates in the sight-seen market, and now we see increases occurring for generic MS65 issues in the sight-unseen market. Among Morgans, several DMPLs are slightly higher in MS64 and MS65 with the 1881 in PCGS MS65 DMPL jumping 44 percent. PCGS has certified only four in this grade with none higher as of March 2002. A few higher Bids are found in the Walking Liberty Half Dollar series with the 1934-S jumping nearly 20 percent in MS65. Silver Commems are mixed with a few strong increases and decreases. The Long Island in NGC MS66 and MS67 is sharply higher while the 1938 Arkansas PDS Set in PCGS MS66 is down. Activity and increases among Proof Singles are confined to the latter date Franklin Half Dollars.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Over 100 Dealers Have Signed on With NCS.

Here are Just a Few Reasons Why...

"The Authority in Numismatic Conservation"

"NCS offers services that are exactly what the coin industry and my clients have long been needing. I have used NCS numerous times and have yet to be disappointed. My clients are thrilled that they can now have their collections properly conserved as needed and desired, thus maximizing the salability and value. I highly recommend them!"

Rick Tomaska

Before NCS

"A brilliant concept! My clients demand attractive coins. By using NCS, I have converted many less attractive coins in my inventory into highly saleable items. It is especially comforting to know that with NCS's grade protection option, I can eliminate most of the risk that I would have if I were to perform the necessary conservation techniques myself."

John Feigenbaum

After NCS

"A gaping hole in the coin business has been eliminated. I have had one major collection conserved and many other single items from my inventory and the results have been astounding. NCS helps me to keep more of the profits where I most need them, in the pockets of my clients."

Larry Hanks

"I must admit my initial skepticism, but in seeing hundreds of NCS conserved coins I am 100% confident in the quality of their work. My favorite aspect of this is that through NCS's affiliation with NGC, I can now, in one seamless effort, have my coins conserved, graded, and entered into the NGC registry."

CCDN Coin Market Index Up 3.42% For Year
Better Dates, Proof Singles & Buffaloes Lead The Pack

Little has changed this year in the rare coin market with respect to the supply side of the business. The difficulty that dealers have experienced and continue to experience this year is their ability to find fresh material to buy. Those that have fresh material are not shy when it comes to price. They know how valuable these coins are to the current market demand and they know that this puts them in the driver's seat. Still, dealers need to constantly buy quality coins as this is their life blood and a necessary part of keeping their business solvent and healthy. They know that any lapse in offerings by their firm my cause the direct loss of immediate and potential sales as well as the possibility of future sales. Keeping an inventory fresh is just good business and this is especially true for rare coins. There are other concerns for dealers who conduct business as a sole proprietor or as a partnership. Dealers are all too aware that they have many customers waiting for coins generated from their current want lists. It is important that they resolve this collector/investor demand as quickly as they can so that their customers won't grow too impatient and go elsewhere for satisfaction. Competition is extremely tough with numerous auction companies making it easy for collector/investors to go online and Bid at public auctions via the Internet. This may be especially important at this time because we are in the beginning stages of a busy auction schedule.

As you can see from our 12 month CCDN Coin Market Index performance chart, the sight-unseen market is active and generally moving in a positive direction. During the past year, 13 indexes that we have tracked are depicting positive percentage gains while only seven decreased slightly. Increases in the sight-unseen market are seen as a barometer of market health reflecting demand for those coins not blessed with exceptional eye appeal, luster and strike. Demand for average and below average coins is necessary for continued market growth. Dealers that can't find PQ coins to buy often buy average and lesser quality coins. Besides the plus signs this week, discounting is evident but not to any major degree. We are seeing many supporting Bids for coins at current levels. Dealers continually post these Bids hoping to be hit so they can add coins to their inventories at reasonable prices. Other dealers are more aggressive, increasing Bid in an effort to try and force a transaction. Most of the time we see that the increases are very slight but it still makes holders of these coins rethink their strategy. What areas of the market are receiving Bid increases? Interest is very noticeable for Silver Commemoratives. A large number of plus signs are seen throughout this popular area. Dealers are looking for quality Commems because their customers can readily afford to buy MS64 and better quality for their collections. This week, the exception is with the Hawaiian Sesquicentennial. It is advancing in MS61 thru MS65. This Commem is scarce in all grades and can command four figures in MS61. Gold Commems are quiet with supporting Bids and some discounting. Slight increases are also apparent among generic Morgan Dollars in MS65 and MS66. Otherwise, it's business as usual with "CC" Mint Dollars in demand as well as some select better dates. Buffalo Nickels are still super strong with increases and supporting Bids omnipresent. Even though the number of plus signs decreased this week, the demand hasn't. This series has been powerful. Mercury Dimes are steady with Bids carefully targeting a few of the better dates of the series. Strength is seen for Walking Liberty Half Dollars despite the lack of plus signs. Dealers are trying to buy select dates for customers as they can. Late date Franklin Halves are active among the Proof Singles. This area has been a stellar performer this past year. Mint State Gold is improving and could turn positive on our chart if Gold spot continues to close at higher levels, now over $320 per ounce. Bid has increased sharply for Type I $20 Libs this week in MS66. The jump represents a more than 100 percent increase for PCGS examples and nearly a 50 percent leap for NGC slabs. Finally, sharp increases and demand for Washington Quarters and key date Lincolns have been the reason for the explosive move in this segment of the market.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

MARKET LISTINGS

MARKET columns reflect the latest dealer-to-dealer selling prices seen in the market, based on monitoring Low Asks or Last Trades from wholesale trading networks, sell lists, coin shows and other sources of wholesale transactions. Auction prices realized or retail trading information are used to adjust prices for infrequently traded issues. The Publisher warrants that it has exercised due diligence; presently, there is no practicable method of following all wholesale postings or transactions. Readers should be aware that there is no implied guaranty or belief that the prices listed are actually representative of the current market value of any coin; listing does not guarantee that such a coin is now available for purchase, or that it was actually available at the time the Market price was posted. Due to the volatile nature of the market, current values may be greater or less than the market price listed. A higher grade coin might display a lower Market level than a lower grade specimen, due to limited sell information. Listing Policy: During the thirty days prior to publication, we track the lowest sales-related price in the marketplace. Last Trade information normally takes precedence over Low Asks, except when a lower Ask is posted during the last week before publication. We delete stagnant Market prices which are lower than current Bid. Since the timeliness of the information is important, we use the following timing symbols: "w" - Lowest asking price during the week prior to publication (week old); "m" - Lowest asking price during the previous three weeks (*m*onth old); "t" - *T*rade during the most recent month; "lm" - Lowest asking price appearing *l*ast *m*onth; "lt" - Trade appearing *l*ast month; "ot" *T*rade older than 2 months; " " a blank, for all Market prices older than two months; "a" for auction transactions; "oa" - auction older than 1 month.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN albeit on a sight basis.

Long Beach Expo On Horizon California Auctions Offer Much Needed Material

Dealers are closing out a successful May and look forward to a busy month of June. They will get off to a quick start with two scheduled California auctions. Superior Galleries will feature the Robinson S. Brown Jr., collection of Large Cents on June 2. Next, they will host The Pre-Long Beach Sale June 3-4 in Beverly Hills. Ira & Larry Goldberg C&C will host their own Pre-Long Beach Sale on June 2-5 in Los Angeles. We have listed a few of the certified highlights of each auction below. These auctions will give dealers a much needed opportunity to buy some fresh material that they have been clamoring for these past weeks. After the Pre-Long Beach auctions, dealers will stay in California for the Heritage sales and attend the Long Beach Expo June 6-9. This is a particularly busy time for dealers but if successful, it should alleviate some of their inventory deficiencies and allow them to cross off a few coins from their want lists.

The sight-unseen market is healthy as we begin June. Dealers are still Bidding aggressively for coins because demand has yet to be satisfied. The truth of this statement is easily understood by looking at our chart for Buffalo Nickels. Several dealers are still chasing down the semi-key and key dates. We know that there has been increased Bidding and activity taking place in the Buffalo series in 2002. Dealers are not surprised. They know that a strong collector/investor demand is in place from a broadening collector base. This group of collector/investors is looking for high quality examples for their sets. Dealers say that 75 percent of the buyers are building quality sets with others accumulating a single rarity here and there. Many would like to see their set reach the top 5 of the registry. They enjoy the prestige earned from having and building a set that is among the finest known. These individuals are generally between 40-60 years old, male and professionals. These doctors, lawyers and high level executives are willing to put more funds in the rare coin market because the alternatives offered in the financial markets have been quite disappointing. These buyers especially enjoy Buffalo Nickels because the design is very attractive; a classic American coin that appeals to a broad spectrum of people. These buyers are also very astute, looking for quality examples that are well struck, exhibit brilliant luster and have eye appeal. Mint State Type is another area doing well this week. Demand is pushing Bids higher for MS64 thru MS66 3-Cent Nickels; 3-Cent Silvers Type I and III; Shield Nickels; Liberty Nickels and Capped Bust Half Dimes. Dealers are also trying to buy Type to add to their depleted inventories. Other areas advancing include MS65 and better Silver Commemoratives; Generic and "CC" Morgan Dollars; Mint State Gold, especially the $20 denomination where better than 15 percent gains are seen for MS64 Type III Libs; Proof Type; Walking Liberty Half Dollars; and, Proof Singles. It is believed that many of these market sectors are expected to experience the same strong demand in June that we have witnessed in the first five months of 2002.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

Market Volatility Is A Sign Of The Times
Circ, Mint State & Proof Coins Trading At LB Expo

It has been an extremely volatile week in the financial markets. Yet, this is a condition that we have come to expect today more as the usual than the unusual. When the Dow Jones averages move 100 points or more in a day, it hardly makes big news. Similarly, the precious metals are also caught-up in this increasing volatility, a condition that may leave many coin dealers scratching their heads about a trade that they completed only yesterday. Sometimes it can be frustrating to think about the trade that you wanted to complete but didn't. Offers to sell quantities of 100 Saints have been more apparent these days. Still, dealers must recognize today's increasing volatility and be prepared to act accordingly so that their customers and business are able to survive and prosper during these turbulent times. It is a case where one area of the market may be experiencing sharp gains while another is hauntingly quiet. Sharp percentage gains may be realized in a very short period of time but buyers beware! Often, sharper decreases are also more prevalent. Today's financial investors are looking for the quick hit, often leaving little patience for investing over a longer period of time realizing more modest annual gains. Understandably, prudent dealers like to direct their customers to buy rare coins for extended periods of time. We know that historically, the majority of collector/investors that realized the best percentage gains from the dispersal of their collection did so after several years passed. Dealers are sharing their wisdom with many of today's collector/investors that are new to the rare coin market. The seeds they plant today will hopefully germinate long standing relationships with a customer. Repeat business is very important in this business. After all, completing a collection of Walking Liberty Half Dollars, Morgan Dollars or Buffalo Nickels doesn't happen overnight. It's not as easy as buying 1,000 shares of Microsoft. Finally, anybody that is working on a complete set of $20 Saint-Gaudens better dig deeply into their pocket if they want to be 100 percent successful in this endeavor. That's because there is only one 1933 Saint-Gaudens authorized for private ownership and it is on display at the Long Beach Expo, already in progress. This amazing rarity will be sold at auction in New York this July and it is likely to become the world's most valuable coin. Dealers are looking to buy coins at the Expo but are finding the pickings very challenging. This is true for those looking for rarities and PQ examples. However, other dealers that buy VF-AU coins are already having some early success. Also, GSA "CC" Morgan Dollars were actively changing hands. Increases continue to occur on our sheet as well because of the strong demand.

The sight-unseen market is also experiencing a greater degree of volatility and activity. We are even beginning to see more sight-unseen Bids for ANACS graded coins. However, the bulk of the Bids and buying is certainly concentrated for those NGC and PCGS encapsulated coins. This week, 187 issues advanced while only 36 declined. Morgan Dollars; Mint State Gold; Silver Commemoratives; Proof Type and Mint State Type are all experiencing strong collector/investor demand. Consequently, dealers are out there shaking the trees with the hope of landing a few good apples. The Mint State and Proof Type categories jump out at us this week. We see that strong interest is mainly being directed at the Barber and Liberty Seated designs. Increases are occurring in these two popularly collected areas. Among Liberty Seated business strike issues, plus signs are seen for Legend Dimes in MS66 and 20-Cent pieces in MS65. Proof Liberty Seated coins are also higher with Legend Dimes gaining in PR65 and PR66; Motto Quarters up in PR65 and PR66; and, Motto Halves in PR65. Barber coinage is also highly sought-after today. Increases are seen for Proof Barber Quarters and Halves while Mint State examples are higher for all three denominations. Dealers are looking for quality as the increases are taking place for coins grading 65 and better. Many plus signs that are found on our Gold Type section are a reflection of today's demand for Gold. Despite the volatility, Gold and Silver have been increasing. Many new collector/investors are looking for entry into this market and buying Mint State numismatic Gold is one way that they have chosen. Generic Morgans are also gaining ground, scarce "CC" dates are up, as are generics in grades MS65 and MS66.

CERTIFIED COIN DEALER newsletter

CCDN — a weekly report on the Sight-Unseen certified market published by the Coin Dealer Newsletter (est. 1963)

Vol. XVII No. 24 June 14, 2002 Single copy price $4.00

Late Date Walkers Continue To Advance
Sensational Demand Seen For "CC" Dollars

Normally Bidders expect the sight-unseen rare coin market to slow down during the days surrounding major shows and public auctions. Electronic trading had slacked off a bit during this period because dealers were able to buy a number of coins at the Long Beach Expo and auctions accompanying the show. Dealers Bidding in the sight-unseen market are convinced that the overall rare coin market is moving upward, the sign of a healthy market is upon us. They suggested that the reason many coins are able to sell at or above Bluesheet levels at major coin shows is because 80-90 percent of professionally graded and slabbed coins are average or above for the grade. Even though we also noticed a bit of a slowdown, it is still clearly evident that Bidders are actively participating in this sight-unseen market trying to fill orders. That can be seen by the very lopsided plus/minus count with over 300 pluses seen versus only 35 minus signs. Obviously the demand has yet to be satisfied as some dealers are taking out their frustration by jumping the last high Bid by 10 percent or more hoping to buy a few more coins.

Despite the slowdown, we see that many plus signs are appearing in several areas of the market. Walkers are arguably the strongest area at this moment. A large number of increases are taking place in this popular series. Yes, it is the late dates of the series benefiting from the plus signs but also a number of strong Bids are regularly seen for Walkers valued at $1,000 or more. Morgan Dollars have been strong throughout 2002 and the largest portion of this strength can be found among the Carson City Mints. This week, the Prooflike Morgans are playing catch-up with the increases that have taken place over the last month. Dealers have increased Bids for select "CC" Dollars in PL. They have also increased their Bids for DMPL "CC" Dollars as well as for non PL "CC" Dollars. The explosion in popularity for the "CC" Dollars is continuing as we approach summertime. GSA "CC" Dollars were actively changing hands during the Long Beach Expo. This week plus signs are occurring for MS64 PL and DMPL examples from NGC and PCGS. Movements in Franklin Half Dollars are dominating the Proof Single increases. Buyers are looking for coins in all Proof grades with an emphasis on PR64 and above. Washington Quarters have been doing well for quite some time and this week the keys have jumped considerably. Dealers are desperately trying to buy these dates to fill orders from customers.

Silver Commemoratives are generally finding Bidders posting small increases for high quality pieces. They are trying to buy gem quality examples but will settle for an MS63 or MS64 here and there depending upon the issue. Still, the majority of Bidding is occurring in grade MS65 and above. As you can see on our Mint State Type charts, it appears that very few plus and minus signs are occurring. However many dealers are continually posting numerous supporting Bids. Yet, don't miss the Bid jumps seen for 3-Cent Silvers Type I in grade MS66. Also, the Braided Hair Half Cent Type in MS65 Brown turned in a strong sight-unseen Bid increase for NGC examples. The PCGS counterpart also advanced. High Reliefs are dominating the Mint State Gold Type charts. Increases up to 4 percent are seen for MS61 thru MS65 grades for both PCGS and NGC. The buyer is looking for quantities at each grade level. Also, increases are appearing for the key 1911-D $2.50 Indian in low Mint State grades. Proof Type is also enjoying several plus signs this week. Proof Nickel Type is desperately needed, with 3-Cent Nickels and Liberty Nickels in PR63 and better receiving the most attention from dealers. Proof Gold showed some weakness this week with several minus signs appearing. Dealers may discount slow moving Proof Gold as a quick way of raising a cash. Buffalo Nickels are still increasing. Although the demand has cooled considerably from earlier in the year, dealers are trying to buy quality examples for their customers working on top sets. Although Mercury Dimes are doing better in the sight-seen market, minus signs are the norm for the sight-unseen market.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined [illegible] (nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported [illegible] Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell [illegible] of the Traders, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. [illegible]

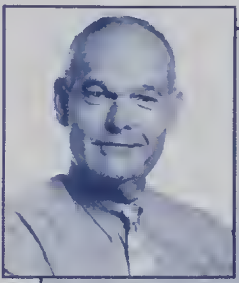
Major Auction House Wants to Sell Your Coins for Zero Commission At This Year's ANA Sale

OFFICIAL AUCTIONEER ANA 2002 New York City WORLD'S FAIR OF MONEY™



My name is Steve Deeds. I'm President of Superior Galleries, a division of Tangible Asset Galleries. We outbid every auction house in the country for the right to stage the ANA Auction this year, and we did this for a very good reason:

What better way to earn your business than to sell your coins for free!

Dear Coin Collector (or dealer):

As you know, sellers at auctions usually pay 5% - 15% commission or more when they sell their coins or collectibles. On a $50,000 collection, that's an average of $5,000 out of your pocket right there.

Not this year. At this year's ANA Sale, in New York City August 1-3, Superior Galleries will sell your coins for free.

We are doing this to attract maximum consignments to what promises to be the biggest sale of the year. Our primary purpose is not to make money with this sale; it's to introduce you to a whole new way of doing business, with a publicly-traded rare coin company.

That's why we're doing everything in our power to attract sellers to this year's ANA Auction (Superior is the auctioneer). We think there is a good chance we'll do more business with you, if our first and foremost goal is to make you money.

TIME IS RUNNING SHORT

WHETHER YOU ARE A DEALER OR A COLLECTOR -- IF YOU HAVE COINS YOU MIGHT WANT TO SELL AT ANA -- TIME IS RUNNING SHORT. WE CAN ONLY ACCEPT CONSIGNMENTS THROUGH JUNE 22, 2002.

MONSTER SELLING OPPORTUNITY OF THE DECADE

ANA this year is more than just another auction. In fact, it's a monster selling opportunity that comes along maybe once in a decade:

- Gold is at 3-year highs in the face of an uncertain economy.
- The ANA is in New York City, where it will attract more key coin buyers under one roof than at any time in memory.
- Demand for rare coins is the strongest it's been in years.

Add to these conditions a massive advertising and publicity campaign we have planned to attract the maximum number of buyers to create a true seller's market:

- ➢ We're launching a direct mail campaign that will reach all 25,000 members of ANA, plus 25,000 more clients on our private mailing lists.
- ➢ We're advertising the auction on national cable TV.
- ➢ We're partnering with EBAY for live bidding at ANA – so your coins could potentially reach an audience of 40 million bidders!
- ➢ We're running ads like this one in all the major coin publications.
- ➢ We've arranged for the appearance at the ANA of the amazing King of Siam coin set – the world's most expensive set of rare coins that's sure to attract maximum attention and publicity.
- ➢ We are already selling several "six figure coins" at the ANA Sale – coins that should be in museums. That's pretty impressive company for your coins to keep!

All these factors could lead to a "feeding frenzy" – even "panic buying" by dealers and collectors desperate to acquire "fresh" material.

You know as well as I do that prices at auction are determined by supply and demand. So what do you think will happen with your coins – when you are the supply, and we have created maximum demand?

Why sell your coins with Superior? Because our people have sold more coins, for more money, since 1929, than any rare coin company. We've built a reputation as a leader to match anyone in the industry.

EXTRA INCENTIVES FOR YOU TO CONSIGN TO THE ANA AUCTION BY SUPERIOR GALLERIES

To further entice you to at least find out what your coins might bring, we want to do three more things.

$2,000 APPRAISAL —FREE

1. When you call Superior Galleries with coins to consign worth at least $10,000 – you won't be passed off to an "auction coordinator," you will be connected directly to me. I normally charge $2,000 per hour to banks and other institutions for expert appraisals – but for you, for now, my service is free. Our toll-free number is 800-421-0754. Please call and ask to speak directly with me.

FREE TRIP TO NEW YORK CITY

2. If we think your coins will bring $100,000 or more, we will fly you to New York, put you up in a fine hotel, and invite you as our special guest to the auction where your consignments may get you more money than you ever dreamed.

ZERO COMMISSION ON CONSIGNMENTS OF $50,000 OR HIGHER

3. To repeat: if your consignment brings $50,000 or more, we will sell your coins for free. That's $5,000 or more in profit to you, just from savings on commissions.

ANA promises to be the biggest sale in years. You have a final opportunity to participate in this sale as a consigner in the most important auction of the year. Demand may be unprecedented. You may have to wait months, or maybe forever, for market conditions to favor you as heavily as they will at this year's ANA Sale.

You have nothing to lose by calling me. Remember: the deadline is June 22, and the phone number for consignments is 800-421-0754. I will take your call personally.

All the best,

Steve Deeds

PS. I can't emphasize strongly enough: conditions right now are just right for you to achieve prices for your coins that may not be repeated for years. Please call me today so we can determine how much money we might make — for you.

"This is the book about the coin business you can't afford to be without." - NEWSWEEK

"Should be read before a single coin is bought - and read again and again!" - Coin World

UNPRECEDENTED SIX-TIME NUMISMATIC LITERARY GUILD AWARD WINNER

Traditionally, learning a lesson in the rare coin market has been very expensive. You would buy a coin for $500, find out later that it was worth only $50, and, thus, you would have to pay $450 to learn just one lesson. But now, thanks to the fourth edition of The Coin Collector's Survival Manual, by Scott A. Travers, you no longer have to pay a fortune to learn about how to buy and sell coins profitably.

This thoroughly revised edition examines the coin field from an insider's perspective and continues to break new ground in revealing the ins and outs of coin collecting and investing. Excellent photographs and detailed charts amplify the encyclopedic, clearly written, meticulously organized text. You'll learn about the following:

- How to look at coins the way the professionals do
- How to determine what a coin is worth and what grade the leading certification services would assign to it
- How to spot slight friction on otherwise "Gem" coins
- How to tell the difference between proof and prooflike
- How lighting affects appearance—and the latest in halogen flashlights
- Altered and counterfeit detection techniques
- How to judge price guide accuracy
- Selecting and testing a coin dealer

SPECIAL SECTIONS ON:

- Doctored coins, how to detect them, and the case of the doctored hoard of gold rarities that got slabbed
- The real truth about slab services "fixed grading standard" claims and premium quality coins
- Revelations from a leading coin trader
- A grading service founder's startling admission of modified grading standards
- The newest tax laws

- How not to get ripped off if you buy coins through the mail or over the Internet
- Profitable - and not-so-profitable - liquidation techniques
- How to buy and sell at conventions like the pros do
- How to spot a cleaned and artificially toned coin
- How to choose a non-destructive coin holder and safe—as well as the right storage method
- A review of some Internet web sites, with a legal analysis
- Requirements of the FTC telemarketing act
- The real facts behind the toning corrosion controversy

NEW information in the fourth edition:

- Courageous information about on-line auctions—no other numismatic author has ever been as bold in exposing Internet scams!
- A comparison of PCGS versus NGC—which service does the market really favor?
- Stunning exposé and bombshell interview on coin "doctoring"
- Special full-color section on artificially toned and doctored coins

and much, much more!

Saint-Gaudens In Serious Demand Optimism Is Key to Strong Bidding

To say that most dealers have optimistic feelings about the current and future activities in the rare coin market would be an understatement. Actually many are very excited about the market and its immediate future. Consequently, when dealers feel this way about market conditions they are willing to step-out and pay more for coins. That is why the wholesale market is active and flourishing and that is why Bids are increasing. Some are saying that the market hasn't been this active since 1989. If you examine the indexes of the broader financial markets it is easy to see why money is being earmarked for rare coins. The stock market is floundering despite the best efforts of corporate executives to improve corporate earnings. Interest rates are low and the price of Gold bullion is a positive indicator of a sound and improving rare coin market. Gold continues to trade above $300 per ounce despite a recent wave of profit taking. Along with Gold and Silver bullion, the collector/investor wants numismatic coins. We have seen this kind of buying taking place at recent coins shows and at public auction. It is also most prevalent in the sight-unseen market where dealers are boldly posting strong Bids trying to obtain some coins quickly. Dealers are bidding aggressively because they haven't been able to buy enough material. There are two main reasons why demand is so strong today although we know that other reasons exist. Initially, dealers have orders to fill. Want lists continue to grow adding fuel to the market. Collector/investors are buying coins today with a purpose. They have done a lot of reading and also have the benefit of many years of experience and expertise from their dealers. This allows them to spend their money with more confidence. Dealers always hope that a coin or two may fortuitously become available to them. Along with the normal avenues used to buy coins a surprise may walk in the dealers door right off the street. Nevertheless, dealers are trying to fill these want lists and are willing to Bid strongly on the electronic dealer networks as part of their daily regimen to complete these potential sales. Secondly, dealers are in severe need of coins to beef-up their depleted inventories. Dealers look to increase their inventory level when there is an anticipated increase in sales. This situation is taking place today and dealers are trying to stay ahead of the curve by having a solid offering of coins for their current and potentially new customers.

This week the Silver Commems are realizing strong demand. Dealers believe that they may be in the initial stages of an increase because they are reasonably priced relative to their market cycle. Consequently dealers are willing to add to their positions now before prices move higher. Dealers anticipate increased collector/investor demand and want to be prepared to offer a nice selection. Increases are seen mostly occurring in MS65 and better grades. Morgan Dollars continue to be solid at current levels. Proof Type is advancing this week. Liberty Seated Dimes, Quarters and Half Dollars are up in PR65 and PR66. Barber Quarter and Half Dollar Proofs are also higher in similar grades. These popular areas of the market are often inventory targets of dealers. Buffalo Nickels are up again this week. They have been among the hottest segments of the market. Dealers are looking for quality MS65 and better examples with the strongest need for the more expensive and elusive key and semi-key dates. Mint State Type is also participating in this market rally. Copper is the main course and desire of this week's huge advances. Early Copper Half Cents are highly sought-after in various Mint State grades while plus signs are also appearing for select Braided Hair Large Cents. 1859 dated Indian Cents are also higher. Silver is the appetizer as a few plus signs are appearing for Barber Dimes.

The steady climb in this week's Gold bullion markets has resulted in remarkable activity in Mint State Gold Coins. Bid activity is taking place in virtually every segment. For generic and slightly better $20 Saints we have tracked across-the-board Bid increases in all grades through MS66. A sampling of generic Saint Bids shows an average increase of 8.4%. Slightly better dates are showing an average increase of 10.7%. 1907 High Reliefs have increased an average of 5.6%. Amazingly, dealers are looking to buy quantities at these levels. Bowers is conducting the Isaac Edmunds collection June 27-29 in Chicago. An EF40 1794 Flowing Hair Dollar and an AU50 1870-CC $20 Liberty highlight this sale.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight–unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

Opposing Forces Target Sight-Unseen Market Strong Demand For Gold And Buffalo Nickels

Each day seems to spell trouble in the financial markets. Corporate problems are mounting with many investors reeling, left to fend for themselves. In this environment it's no wonder that collector/investors are willing to return to the serenity and pleasure afforded to them by collecting rare coins. People are concerned and deeply troubled by these problems as they look to extricate themselves to a better, safer alternative for their funds. Interest in rare coins has been growing, in a large part due to the Mint's continuing production of the circulating State Quarters. Add the proliferation of new designs and denominations struck as part of our Modern Commemorative program along with the new portraits on our Paper Money and it's easy to see why demand has been so strong. Dealers are trying to accommodate this demand the best way that they can. Placing Bids in the sight-unseen market is a quick and satisfying way of adding a few coins. On the sell side it can provide quick cash to quell any liquidity problems that may develop.

This week the sight-unseen market is being driven by two opposing forces: strong Bids and discounting. Even though some might view the sight-unseen market as somewhat mixed, the majority emphatically believe that it leans to the upside. That's why dealers are unafraid to post sizable percentage jumps in Bid over the previous sight-unseen level. We see these jumps regularly occurring at public auction and so it's not unusual for this activity to take place in other areas of the market. Dealers who believe a select area or specific segment of the coin market is undervalued are at ease with their strong Bids. They are hoping to shock some holders of these coins and force them to part with them. Well anyway that's the plan, although in an increasing and healthy market it is still difficult to achieve one's goal. With half the year in the books, the situation where dealers need coins for their customers and their inventory continues to exist. Consequently they are willing to try different ways to buy coins. However activity in the market is all about buying and selling rare coins. Naturally dealers are working on keeping their inventory fresh. Selling stock that has been on the shelf too long is a necessary part of the business. Some discounting is evident, primarily among Mercury Dimes and Type. This is necessary because dealers need to keep their credit lines open and liquidity available if they are to capitalize on any deal that should pass their way. This is very important when they attend public auctions and coin shows. Many dealers are already in the Chicago area participating in the Mid-America Coin Expo in Rosemont. This June 28-30 Show offers the potential for dealers to add to inventories as well as to buy some coins on existing want lists.

This week finds the market chasing something old and something new. Demand is still evident for several areas of the market that have been strong throughout the year. These include Buffalo Nickels, Carson City Morgan Dollars, Walking Liberty Half Dollars, Gold Commems, Silver Commems and Proof Singles. Readers have seen many weeks of plus signs among these areas of the market and this week's Bids are a continuation of that demand. It also tells us that the dealers looking to buy have not been totally successful in achieving their goals. We know that a few individuals are working on registry sets of Buffalo Nickels for example, and this can be quite challenging. Quality examples are needed of the more difficult dates of the series. Dealers are aggressively pursuing these coins but know they have to Bid strongly to be successful. We also notice that strong demand has forced plus signs to reappear for Gold Commems. These issues are tough to find in quantity and so it only takes a few interested buyers to trigger higher Bids. Some new demands are also appearing this week. For example, Draped Bust Dimes with the Heraldic Eagle reverse are eagerly sought-after in MS65. Note the $15,000 Bid for NGC examples. We also know that select NGC Mint State Gold Type is attracting strong Bids. Interest has pushed Bids higher for several denominations including $2.50 Libs; $2.50 Indians; $3 Gold; $5 Libs; and, $5 Indians. When available, Gold is simply and quietly being put away by astute buyers.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highes nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

MARKET LISTINGS

MARKET columns reflect the latest dealer-to-dealer selling prices seen in the market, based on monitoring Low Asks or Last Trades from wholesale trading networks sell lists coin shows and other sources of wholesale transactions. Auction prices realized or retail trading information are used to adjust prices for infrequently traded issues. The Publisher warrants that it has exercised due diligence; presently, there is no practicable method of following all wholesale postings or transactions. Readers should be aware that there is no implied guaranty or belief that the prices listed are actually representative of the current market value of any coin; listing does not guarantee that such a coin is now available for purchase or that it was actually available at the time the Market price was posted. Due to the volatile nature of the market, current values may be greater or less than the market price listed A higher grade coin might display a lower Market level than a lower grade specimen, due to limited sell information. Listing Policy: During the thirty days prior to publication, we track the lowest sales-related price in the marketplace. Last Trade information normally takes precedence over Low Asks, except when a lower Ask is posted during the last week before publication. We delete stagnant Market prices which are lower than current Bid. Since the timeliness of the information is important, we use the following timing symbols: "w" Lowest asking price during the week prior to publication (week old); "m" Lowest asking price during the previous three weeks (month old); "t" Trade during the most recent month; "lm" Lowest asking price appearing last month; "lt" Trade appearing last month; "ot" Trade older than 2 months; " " a blank, for all Market prices older than two months; "a" for auction transactions; "oa" auction older than 1 month

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit on a sight basis.

Here's what some of Spectrum's satisfied clients have to say:
This is just a note to say "thank you" for the prompt attention, courteous service, and fair prices I received for the sale of my collection. Mr. Thad Olson is extremely knowledgeable, and I felt at ease and quite confident in dealing with him. His offer was more than 20% higher than I received elsewhere, which was both a pleasant surprise and a wonderful bonus for dealing with your company. I would certainly recommend Spectrum to my friends and associates without reservation.

I was very pleased with your offer. I also appreciated being spared the "critical analysis" most dealers feel they must go through before making an offer. I'm just sorry I didn't try your firm long ago. I'm convinced after my first sale to you that Spectrum is the place to go if you want honesty and fair dealing.

I have done business with Spectrum for the past eight years and every transaction has been totally satisfactory. Whether it was my most recent sale ($700) or the one in 1995 for over $100,000 (remember that one?) everyone has been friendly, professional, and fair.

Spectrum has a commitment to customer satisfaction that is unsurpassed in the rare coin industry. Let us help you to realize the most money for your coins. Give us an opportunity to serve you.

Collector Coins Take Center Stage At Mid-America Expo

1794 Dollar In EF40 Claims $115,000 At B&M Auction

Many dealers that attended the Mid-America Coin Expo reported having a good show. The June 28-30 show in Rosemont, Illinois was important because of its location in the central part of the country. Many collector/investors reside in this area and they are avidly looking to buy rare coins. Attendance at the show was described as fairly heavy, benefiting from people attending a nearby toy show. There were new people walking around the bourse, checking out the many different denominations and coinage designs. While this particular group did not account for the bulk of the transactions at the show, we can be sure that the seeds have been planted which may benefit future shows. Those that came to the show to buy, and there was many, were looking for collector coins. One dealer that we spoke with said that demand is strong for collector coins, "No matter what the grade is as long as its price is commensurate for the grade." These coins were quickly sold at Rosemont, he said. Key dates of all series remain solidly in demand by dealers. They know that their customers are willing buyers at current levels, but the problem of finding enough examples to meet this demand remains unsolved. Key dates from all the popular 20th century series are especially sought-after today. Dealers know how important it is to keep their inventory supplied with these key dates to satisfy client demand. Type is another area of the market that experienced strong demand at the show. Dealers were all over the bourse trying to buy Type coins. This area of the market has grown in popularity due to the extreme cost of completing date and Mint sets of early series. Consider the cost of completing sets of the Bust or Liberty Seated series. If you attempt to add the rare varieties as well, the prices skyrocket! Scarce coins seem to be experiencing exceptional demand. According to dealers, anything that was scarce, even up to more modern issues were instant sellers. Also, interest for Full Step Jefferson Nickels and Franklin Half Dollars was high. Buyers want brilliant white Franklins today, and they are willing to take them with or without Full Bell Lines.

Dealers are still increasing Bid in the sight-unseen market but with little success. Obviously, values are still too low to entice holders of select coins to part with them at current sight-unseen levels. Although many Bidders know this, they like to take the cautious approach when Bidding to protect themselves from receiving an unusually "ugly" example. Also, dealers tell us that for the most part they are happy with the quality of the coins they receive while Bidding sight-unseen. Some discounting is occurring again this week but the overall strength, as seen by the plus/minus count, outweighs any weakness. Proof Gold, Silver Type, Commems, Mercury Dimes and Buffalo Nickels are experiencing increased Bids this week in the sight-unseen market. Like last week, a dealer has increased Bid for a Draped Bust Dime with the Heraldic Eagle reverse. Another Draped Bust design denomination gaining attention is the Dollar. NGC Bid has increased strongly in MS61 to $10,000 and $12,500 in MS62 for examples of this rare Type. Astute dealers understand that they were undervalued at their previous level. Finally, Type III $20 Liberty's in Proof are receiving higher Bids in PR61 and PR62. Again, undervalued coins are being targeted for acquisition.

The Isaac Edmunds collection auction held in conjunction with the Mid-America Expo realized more than $2.55 million. The sale, conducted by Bowers and Merena on June 27-29 in Chicago was well received by enthusiastic Bidders. We have listed a few of the certified highlights.

Silver Commems, Buffalo Nickels & Type Turn Heads
Strong Sight-Unseen Bids Target Several Areas

The extreme hot temperatures experienced throughout the country in early July is matched by the hot sight-unseen market for the same period. Extreme volatility is also prevalent in our stock market with funds looking for greater rates of return and less volatility. Some of that money is entering the rare coin market. As a result, an increasing collector base is keeping demand strong this summer. Even with sight-unseen Bids increasing, dealers remain frustrated because they are still not able to buy enough rare coins. One east coast dealer simply said he can't buy enough of the coins he needs at the current Bid levels. This has been the major complaint for some time now and it doesn't look as if this situation is improving. We know that there have been auctions and shows taking place around the country helping to provide some coins for dealers. However, the problem of too much demand chasing too few rare coins continues to strike hard at dealer's checkbooks. A large part of the problem is weak Bids. Dealers tell us that too many coins are just undervalued and it takes much stronger Bids to buy some of these coins. "Undervalued" is what a dealer from Colorado said about the increase in Bids targeting the Silver Commemoratives. There are new people entering the coin market every day adding to this demand. Many dealers agree that the series as a whole is undervalued with sight-unseen Bids not strong enough to generate enough transactions. Consequently, the Bid increases placed this week seem long overdue and necessary if one hopes to buy some Silver Commems in today's market. The Silver Commem series is a perfect example of why dealers believe that the sight-unseen Bids are undervalued. In this case, the NGC Bids are perceived to be undervalued in comparison to their PCGS counterpart and at least one dealer is looking to address this situation and at the same time make some prudent acquisitions. The majority of the plus signs are frequenting the MS65 and MS66 grades. Other sectors of the rare coin market have similar discrepancies, which may provide some more astute dealers' opportunities if they are able to take advantage of these situations. Knowledge about the series is key because not every issue has increased. For example, Bid declined in the past year for select Cleveland, Great Lakes Commems, but many others such as the B.T. Washington PDS Sets have had exceptional increases over the same period. See the list of Silver Commems below for the top five percentage increases and decreases over the past year.

Strong Demand, translating into higher Bids, surfaced this week in the Mint State Type market. Many of you know that Type has been an important part of a dealer's inventory throughout 2002 and we see that they are still trying to buy some coins from select areas of Type. Therefore, several plus signs can be found this week on our Mint State Type charts. Dealers are looking to buy an array of Types and denominations in grades MS63 thru MS66. Three Cent Silvers; Standing Liberty Quarters; Bust; Barber; and, Liberty Seated coins are among the vast number of Type needs translating into plus signs.

Select, key date Buffalo Nickels have been stellar performers over the last year with some sight-unseen Bids rising as high as the mercury does in thermometers in the Nevada desert. This week is no different with plus signs found throughout the series in MS65 and better condition. Again, the better dates of the series are receiving the most demand from dealers. After all, they have customers working on quality sets and these customers are willing to pay strong money to add a coin or two. However, it may take even stronger Bids to shake loose some of the toughest dates of the series. For example: Dates such as 1917-D, 1921-S, 1926-D and 1937-D 3 Legged are not readily available in MS66 or better condition, but that is what serious collectors want. Consequently, we see higher sight-unseen Bids targeting these and other scarce dates again this week.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

PROOFLIKE MORGAN DOLLARS

P/L Dollars may be semi-reflective, with less reflectivity than the deep-mirror Prooflikes. Bids for P/L's are usually much lower than for DMPL's, but command some premium over non-P/L strikes.

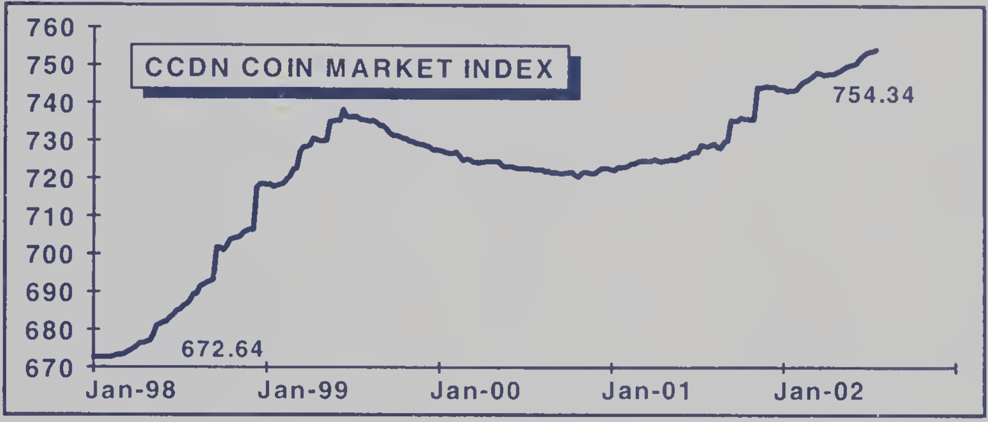
CCDN Coin Market Index Continues Climb New Collectors Entering Market Via Main Street

Last week we wrote about select areas of the market that are considered to be undervalued. The same situation continues to exist this week with dealers still looking to capitalize from this anomaly. They are able to do this by increasing their sight-unseen Bids for select coins that they perceive to be too far below Bids for the same coins but graded and encapsulated by different grading services. When the rare coin market is less active and experiencing soft overall demand, it is understandable to see less aggressive sight-unseen Bids. However, this market is quite active with strong demand exceeding the supply nearly every week. In this favorable rare coin climate, dealers are more willing to place supporting and increasing Bids for coins. They know that in a hot market it is easier to sell some of their mistakes than it is in a slower market. And make no mistake about it, this is a hot market! Evidence is seen throughout the country at rare coin shows, public auctions, online auctions and even at local coin shops. Those dealers that choose not to participate in the rigorous coin travel schedule for shows and auctions are still able to make a lucrative living today by selling rare coins. Many of them say that increasing walk-in traffic to their stores has allowed them to expand their customer base. Most of them credit the Mint's circulating Commemorative State Quarter program for their success. They tell us that moms and dads are often entering their stores for no other reason but to buy a Quarter Map for their son or daughter. Once inside, they are exposed to many rare coins that they never knew existed, and as one dealer put it, "It's an eye opening experience." Proof Sets, Modern Commemoratives and early coins of all metals and denominations are there for their inspection. They are often amazed that they are able to buy an About Uncirculated Morgan Dollar that is usually over 100 years old for less than $20. This is how it all begins, and more importantly some of these new collectors will go on to become tomorrow's serious rare coin collector/investors. Of course, we also know that the collector base is expanding due to the influx of buyers fleeing Wall Street. This group of new buyers is also interested in rare coins, but their concerns include finding a more prudent place to put what's left of their battered stock portfolios. Current low interest rates have proved to be an unacceptable alternative. Therefore, it's this two-pronged demand that has cultivated strong optimistic feelings from dealers about the current market and it's outlook for the future.



This week we see a number of issues in several series realizing increasing Bids in the sight-unseen market. NGC Buffalo Nickels have lagged behind the increases that have been taking place for PCGS examples. Understandably, increased Bids are now looking to buy some of these NGC examples. Early dates are targeted from 1913 thru 1927-S in grades from MS63-66. Increases are also continuing for PCGS Buffaloes. Type is doing extremely well this week. Mint State and Proof Type are generating strong interest. Increases are seen for Liberty Seated and Barber coinage in most denominations in Mint State and Proof. Also, 3-Cent Silvers and Trade Dollars in Proof are in strong demand. Silver Commems continue to garner their share of dealer's Bids. Note the big jump this week for the 1936 Cincinnati Type in NGC MS66. Dealers know that many customers are just waiting to buy and so their acquisition could result in an instant transaction. Additional issues increasing this week include Standing Liberty Quarters and Franklin Half Dollars. Both of these 20th century series displayed increases this week for both PCGS and NGC examples. Common date Standing Liberty Quarters are higher in MS63 and better grades with Full Head examples also sought-after. This sight-unseen demand comes on the heels of strong interest for circulated and BU key and semi-key dates in the sight-seen market. Among Franklin Halves, the key, 1949-D is up in MS65 to $450 Bid. That's a much easier pill to swallow than at the next grade level where it jumps to $2,400. Additionally, several other dates from the series have also displayed increases in MS65.

The Certified Coin Dealer Newsletter Coin Market Index (CCDN CMI) has increased over 12% since January 2, 1998 as seen in the chart above. The index first peaked at 738.24 on June 11, 1999 during the Y2K scare. The CCDN CMI has surpassed this high and now stands at 754.34. This is a level that has not been seen in over 12 years, since June 1990.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

Dear Steve, Chris & Bob,

This pilgrim is on a high HIGH – "a lovely adventure I intend to savor". I said it in my "bio" and it's still apropos. I'm sure you all understand.

It's certainly a pleasure to express to each of you and your staff my appreciation for an outstanding presentation and the success enjoyed by my consignment. Sure – the money validates acquisitions made years ago but I've especially savored the time and effort expended by Chris, Bob, and Steve's talented staff which made this auction so successful.

Last January, Chris and Bob reviewed my consignment and recognized its timeliness and significance. They knew the usual "Public Preview" in Beverly Hills seven days prior to the sale was essential – but could/should be improved. They did, and did it superbly. In addition to full-page pre-sale publicity in major coin publications the coins were taken for viewing to the collector!! More than two months prior to the sale the coins appeared at high attendance coin shows and conventions. It provided pleasantly surprised collectors the essential element for making sensible bids – "hands on, visual confirmation" of grade, color and eye appeal. An important fringe benefit – a saving of time and money spent for travel, hotel, etc., and to materially enhance their bids.

Grading and descriptions were refreshingly candid. Damn right – I was very interested in how Bob would grade and describe my lovelies. He deserves sincere "thank yous" from every successful bidder.

A song from the 1930's lyrics describes the "the Boulevard of Broken Dreams". That "Boulevard" was West Olympic Boulevard for several prominent half cent and colonial collectors who underestimated the pent up demand for high quality material. Record prices were realized time and time again and not likely to be equaled anytime soon. True, the quality of the coppers was an important element of the sales success. But especially so when aligned with Superior Galleries talented and experienced supporting cast. My regards to all at Superior my Gibraltar for over twenty years.

Obviously, this consignment is my high water mark – the most important and successful ever.

I know you didn't expect a Mark Twain write-up, but I did the best I could. Pictures enclosed (sent to Steve and Robbie with more prints requested and available soon).

Best personal regards,

Bill Weber

Mr. Steve Deeds
Superior Galleries, Inc

Dear Steve,

This is a belated letter to thank you, Ron Guth and all the others at Superior Galleries for doing a marvelous job in auctioning all 1513 Late Date Large Cents in one day for me on June 2, 2002.

The results were over all fantastic and about $300,000 more than I expected. The way the auction was handled even with e-Bay – was great. The catalog with pictures of both the obverse and reverse of all the coins was fantastic. And the copy by Bob Grellman was very complete.

I'm sure that all there, as well as bidders from outside, were pleased too.

Thanks for a wonderful end to my Large Cent Collection through the third auction from Superior.

Cordially,

Robbie Brown, Jr.

CCDN — a weekly report on the Sight-Unseen certified market published by the Coin Dealer Newsletter (est. 1963)

Vol. XVII No. 30 July 26, 2002 Single copy price $4.00

New York City Hosts ANA & 1933 Saint Walkers, Buffaloes And Peace Dollars Shine

The rare coin market concludes July optimistically, with dealers encouraged by the number of orders they are receiving. Demand has been strong for quite some time now as more collectors and collector/investors enter the market. The important collector base has been expanding but with that expansion comes some growing pains. Dealers are searching high and low for the coins they need for their longtime customers and growing customer base. These savvy dealers are trying to buy the best possible coins to fit the selective needs of their clients. It is this strong demand and selectivity that has been responsible for choice coins leaving the market. Many of these coins are being placed in collections of individuals who aren't concerned whether or not they make a profit. Many of these buyers are putting away rare coins for their children or just for pleasure. Regardless, the absence of quality, eye appealing rare coins in the market has caused many dealers great concern about their future purchases. That's because the number of new orders for coins is exceeding the number of new coins that they are able to buy.

Hello New York! Dealers will be heading to the "Big Apple" with want lists in hand. The American Numismatic Association's annual summer convention and auction will take place July 31-August 4. However, just prior to its opening, the sale of the famed 1933 $20 Saint-Gaudens by Sotheby's and Stack's on July 30 should have an impact and set the tone for the show. Dealers are rather concerned about their prospects for finding the coins that they need at the price they want to pay. Today's need is great because dealers have sales pending based on their ability to buy. Unfortunately for them, other dealers are facing a similar situation which creates a very competitive environment for the same rare coins. Yet, this has been a situation that dealers have come to expect from the business and they have managed to be successful despite the atmosphere.

This week's sight-unseen market is realizing a continuation of the upward movement that we pointed out in last week's analysis. Nothing has changed on the demand side of the equation with respect to its intensity. However, buyers are shrewdly placing Bids on select areas of the market that they believe to be undervalued. Walking Liberty Half Dollars were first on their list this week as strong Bidding showered our NGC chart with plus signs. It is obvious that dealers are comparing prices from one grading service to another looking for value. Early dates in the series were targeted for special attention. Increases are mainly focused on dates from 1916 thru 1935-S in various Mint State grades. The main concentration seems to be hitting the MS62 thru MS65 columns. In essence, dealers seem to be closing the gap between PCGS and NGC certified coins. This same scenario is taking place on our Buffalo Nickel chart as we saw last week. Plus signs are appearing for select NGC Buffaloes in MS64 thru MS66 throughout the series. The semi-key and key dates of the series are particularly sought-after. We continue to see a number of plus signs on the PCGS side as well. Dealers are also increasing Bid for select Type coins. Among Mint State Type, select areas are realizing a few significant jumps. The 2-Cent pieces are up strongly in MS66 Red for both PCGS and NGC. Shield Nickels, with Rays are also up in MS66. Generally, supporting Bids are seen for Mint State and Proof Type. Peace Dollars are also realizing many higher Bids this week. Interest is heaviest for MS62 and MS63 from 1927-D thru 1934-D for both PCGS and NGC. We also note that the keys are higher with 1921 and 1934-S sporting a few plus signs. Among Morgans, it's all about the "CC" and select "S" Mints. Dealers are looking to buy these coins and need to raise Bid. Silver Commems are slightly higher this week. Some discounting is taking place throughout the market with dealers "blowing out" a few coins to raise cash for New York.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets.
Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

MARKET LISTINGS

MARKET columns reflect the latest dealer-to-dealer selling prices seen in the market, based on monitoring Low Asks or Last Trades from wholesale trading networks, sell lists, coin shows and other sources of wholesale transactions. Auction prices realized or retail trading information are used to adjust prices for infrequently traded issues. The Publisher warrants that it has exercised due diligence; presently, there is no practicable method of following all wholesale postings or transactions. Readers should be aware that there is no implied guaranty or belief that the prices listed are actually representative of the current market value of any coin; listing does not guarantee that such a coin is now available for purchase or that it was actually available at the time the Market price was posted. Due to the volatile nature of the market, current values may be greater or less than the market price listed. A higher grade coin might display a lower Market level than a lower grade specimen, due to limited sell information. Listing Policy: During the thirty days prior to publication, we track the lowest sales-related price in the marketplace. Last Trade information normally takes precedence over Low Asks, except when a lower Ask is posted during the last week before publication. We delete stagnant Market prices which are lower than current Bid. Since the timeliness of the information is important, we use the following timing symbols: "w" Lowest asking price during the week prior to publication (*w*eek old); "m" Lowest asking price during the previous three weeks (*m*onth old); "t" *T*rade during the most recent month; "lm" Lowest asking price appearing *l*ast *m*onth; "lt" Trade appearing *l*ast month; "ot" *T*rade *o*lder than 2 months; " " a blank, for all Market prices older than two months; "a" for auction transactions; "oa" auction older than 1 month.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN albeit, on a sight basis.

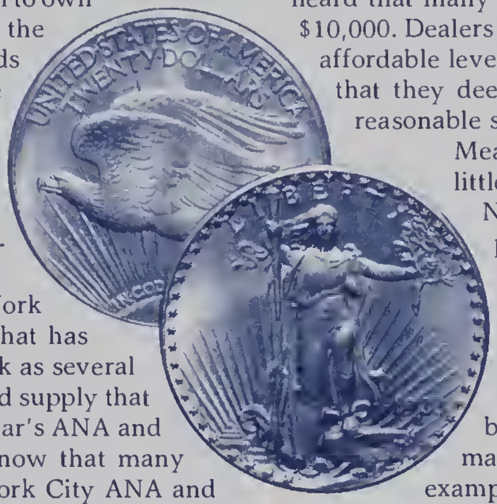
American Collector Pays $7.59 Million In New York Aggressive Buyers Chasing Coins At NY ANA

The American Numismatic Association's annual Summer convention and auction is underway in New York City in dramatic fashion. Dealer set-up and PNG day were held July 30 with many dealers and collectors voicing their optimism about the rare coin market of 2002. Optimistic indeed! On the same evening, an astounding record Bid of $7,590,020 (including the buyer's premium) was tendered from an anonymous, American collector via telephone for the only legal to own 1933 $20 Saint-Gaudens. How strong was the demand? When the Bid hit the $3.5 to $4.5 million level, eight or nine hands remained in the air. When the Bid reached $5.8 million, the final two battled for the prize. The staggering amount paid for this American rarity may change the way dealers value other rarities. Regardless, this sale depicts the powerful demand that exists today for classic rarities. PCGS viewed the coin and indicated that if they were to have the opportunity to encapsulate the coin they would assign the grade of MS65.



Everyone has been anticipating a hot market in New York because of the strong demand for rare coins and a supply that has failed to keep pace. Things have evened up a bit in New York as several rare coin companies conducted sales offering the much needed supply that buyers want. One dealer present at PNG day said that this year's ANA and public auctions represent a "powerful combination." We know that many people have been waiting to buy rare coins and this New York City ANA and auctions provide prospective buyers with that opportunity. Is that much cash available for rare coins? Dealers believe that many people are still confused about the direction of the stock market and are literally sitting on a lot of cash. This cash could play a powerful role at this show and future shows, even if only a small fraction of it is directed at the rare coin market.

Dealers said that the market opening with PNG day was "remarkably strong and resilient," with a lot of dealers looking to capitalize on the first day activities. Many of them were there to buy and Bidding seemed to be fairly strong for attractive examples. Silver Type was said to be attracting strong demand. Dealers were looking for quality Mint State and Proof Type examples for their growing customer base and their inventories. Mostly, they wanted gem quality coins as these are often requested by astute collector/investors. Those examples that have been graded by PCGS and NGC were readily sought-after in Proof and MS65-67 condition. We also heard that many dealers were interested in buying coins that were selling below $10,000. Dealers find that they have many more customers interested at these more affordable levels. As always, dealers were scouring the bourse for any rare coin that they deemed ripe for an upgrade. Any rare coin that they think has a reasonable shot at the next grade was worth buying.

Meanwhile, this week in the sight-unseen market, activity seemed a little bit less intense with many away from home participating in the New York extravaganza. Still, there were some Bidders able to place their Bids for select coins. We also noticed a lot of supporting Bids in place as well. Buffalo Nickels were the only series to repeat last week's strength with several increased Bids in place. However, even though the Bidding wasn't as strong as we saw last week, it is obvious that buyers have failed to obtain all the quality key and semi-key Buffaloes that they need. Silver Commems have been realizing strong Bids at auction and in the sight-unseen market. As we saw at public auction, Bidders are looking for quality examples and that's where the plus signs can be found. Increases among Morgan Dollars are seen for low-grade "CC" and a few better dates from the San Francisco Mint. Many buyers know that there isn't much discrepancy in price at these levels and so they are not afraid to buy these dates sight-unseen. Additionally, increases are also seen for GSA Dollars. These favorites continue to draw strong demand from dealers as collectors are lined-up to buy. The most common examples are now poised to cross the $100 level. The Proof and Mint State Type markets are relatively quiet but we know that this segment is attracting incredible demand today. Buyers are still looking to acquire gem or near gem examples of Type coins.

CERTIFIED COIN DEALER newsletter

CCDN — a weekly report on the Sight-Unseen certified market published by the Coin Dealer Newsletter (est. 1963)

Vol. XVII No. 32 August 9, 2002 Single copy price $4.00

Rarities Find New Homes Via Public Auction
Sight-Unseen Increases Outnumber Decreases

The American Numismatic Association's annual summer convention brought dealers from all around the nation to New York City and when the dust cleared, many of them returned home satisfied with the results of the show. Consequently, the current market atmosphere is bright with interest soaring to heights that haven't been seen since the last coin market boom in the late eighties. We know that market sentiment plays an important role in influencing a buyers willingness to stretch to pay for important coins. They are also more willing to buy a somewhat lesser quality example rather than to return home completely empty handed. This activity, characteristic of a bull market is being driven by the huge imbalance of supply and demand. A weak economy and stock market create fear and apprehension and people are looking for answers and alternative investments for their hard earned money. Prudent investors know that the current low interest rates are not offering them the financial bang for their buck to which they have grown accustomed. The days when technology stocks were riding high with the expectation of strong future profits are behind us. Unfortunately, many well intentioned investors were left holding shares of considerably less valuable companies. Add to this scenario the redesign of our Paper Money, the circulating Commemorative State Quarter program and the proliferation of modern Commemorative issues and it's very easy to see why demand for coins is so strong. It is times like this that allows a single U.S. rare coin to sell for the unheard of price of $7.59 million. It is also times like these that make it difficult for dealers to keep their inventory fresh. It is even harder for them to fill want lists for customers that are growing impatient. Dealers are doing what they can to find and buy the coins but they know that the competition is growing and the bargain prices that were available not long ago are now just a distant memory.

Auction sales played a major role in New York with six companies participating from July 27-August 3. Combined, more than $33 million changed hands with heated floor battles with Internet Bidding playing a greater role. We have listed a few of the many certified highlights from these sales including those from the Superior, Bowers and Merena, Sotheby's/Stack's, Smythe and Heritage. Each company's prices realized include its buyer's fee.

This week's sight-unseen market continues to reflect the strong demand that is evident in the overall coin market. Buffalo Nickels in Mint State and Proof; Morgan Dollars; Mint State Type; and, Proof Type continue to be the object of strong dealer demand. Other areas that have been equally hot continue to realize a reasonable amount of supporting Bids. Weakness is seen among Early Gold Type as some issues were discounted at recent public auctions.

Buyers are trying to add to inventory and fill want lists. The number of coins needed on these lists have grown throughout 2002 and dealers are trying their best to keep pace with this strong demand. They tell us that it is more difficult to buy than to sell right now. This is why the number of increasing Bids has been more prevalent than the number of decreasing Bids week after week. Still, dealers welcome this kind of market, one that is active and vibrant which is a much nicer environment than the alternative.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

PROOFLIKE MORGAN DOLLARS

P/L Dollars may be semi-reflective, with less reflectivity than the deep-mirror Prooflikes. Bids for P/L's are usually much lower than for DMPL's, but command some premium over non-P/L strikes.

Strong Sight-Unseen Bids Trump Discounting Exceptional Demand For Standing Lib Quarters & Saints

Mid-August usually brings the hottest temperatures throughout the country. It is also post ANA time for the rare coin market and this year the heat generated by rising rare coin prices is matching the hot temperatures that are taking place across the nation. Dealers that we speak with are optimistic and excited about the market's strong demand. The customer base is expanding every day. Dealers that own coin shops are the first to measure this growth by the number of their walk-in traffic and increasing sales. Many still credit the Mint's State Quarter program for this success. However, dealers are also quick to point to eBay and the numerous Internet rare coin auctions taking place in this medium. These new collectors not only find interest in buying denominations and Types that they never knew existed but they are also excited about winning rare coin auction lots. The bottom line, collectors are beginning their journey in rare coins while reaping enjoyment along the way.

By now, many of you have probably noticed a number of minus signs in this issue. If the market is so hot, how could there be any minus signs? Seasoned dealers are familiar with the discounting that is occurring. This discounting usually takes place following the completion of public auctions. In New York, six auction companies conducted rare coin sales. Many of these auctions offered thousands of lots for the market to absorb in less than a week. Normally, this number of lots could cause a drop in values but because demand was so strong, only a relatively small number of coins sold at a discount. We know that this deluge of coins is bound to cause some discounting as dealers look to blow-out some stagnant material and replace it with fresh and exciting rare coins. In any event, discounting is seen in several areas of the market. Remember, this is a healthy aspect of a bull market. No market goes straight up or straight down as profit taking and bargain hunting are expected natural occurrences.

What areas are being discounted? Gold Commemoratives have been discounted as some profit taking is occurring. We don't see the strong demand in Gold Commems that was evident earlier in the year. Proof Gold Type is usually an easy way of raising a considerable amount of cash quickly — note its weakness. Morgan and Peace Dollars are also experiencing some discounting. Mainly, it is the higher grade examples hammered down at public auction that just didn't measure up to the high standards many dealers demand. The gap in price from MS66 to MS67 also has a lot to do with the sharp declines, especially among Peace Dollars. Mint State and Proof Type are also regularly discounted items. Yet, strength is still very much evident in both these areas. Also, we know that the sight-unseen market is very strong with aggressive Bidders trying to buy rare coins for their customers and inventories. So, even though we expect some discounting after a large auction, (in this case six) all indications still point to a very active coin market with increasing prices.

This week, several areas of the market remain hot with others getting hot as dealers boldly increase their Bids. Walking Liberty Half Dollars, Buffalo Nickels, Standing Liberty Quarters and Proof Singles (mainly the Mercury Dime and Walking Liberty Halves) are leading the way with many plus signs. These areas have been strong throughout the year except for Standing Liberty Quarters. However, strong jumps in the SLQ series may be making up for that exception. Dealers say that this series is simply undervalued. Bids are higher for NGC and PCGS in grades MS63 thru MS66 for Type 2 common date examples in Full Head and non Full Head. We cannot overlook the $20 Saint-Gaudens series. Plus signs are virtually everywhere throughout all Mint State grades. Dealers are buying dated Saints for their inventories and customers. Many of the dates appear undervalued and renewed interest may be occurring because of the sale of the 1933. Common dates are also being accumulated as an improving Gold spot regains its positive direction. Regardless, Saints are strong and especially note the $2,000 Sight-Unseen Bid for common date examples in MS66.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets.
Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

UNPRECEDENTED SIX-TIME NUMISMATIC LITERARY GUILD AWARD WINNER

Traditionally, learning a lesson in the rare coin market has been very expensive. You would buy a coin for $500, find out later that it was worth only $50, and, thus, you would have to pay $450 to learn just one lesson. But now, thanks to the fourth edition of The Coin Collector's Survival Manual, by Scott A. Travers, you no longer have to pay a fortune to learn about how to buy and sell coins profitably.

This thoroughly revised edition examines the coin field from an insider's perspective and continues to break new ground in revealing the ins and outs of coin collecting and investing. Excellent photographs and detailed charts amplify the encyclopedic, clearly written, meticulously organized text. You'll learn about the following:

- How to look at coins the way the professionals do
- How to determine what a coin is worth and what grade the leading certification services would assign to it
- How to spot slight friction on otherwise "Gem" coins
- How to tell the difference between proof and prooflike
- How lighting affects appearance—and the latest in halogen flashlights
- Altered and counterfeit detection techniques
- How to judge price guide accuracy
- Selecting and testing a coin dealer
- How not to get ripped off if you buy coins through the mail or over the Internet
- Profitable - and not-so-profitable - liquidation techniques
- How to buy and sell at conventions like the pros do
- How to spot a cleaned and artificially toned coin
- How to choose a non-destructive coin holder and safe—as well as the right storage method
- A review of some Internet web sites, with a legal analysis
- Requirements of the FTC telemarketing act
- The real facts behind the toning corrosion controversy

SPECIAL SECTIONS ON:

- Doctored coins, how to detect them, and the case of the doctored hoard of gold rarities that got slabbed
- The real truth about slab services "fixed grading standard" claims and premium quality coins
- Revelations from a leading coin trader
- A grading service founder's startling admission of modified grading standards
- The newest tax laws

NEW information in the fourth edition:

- Courageous information about on-line auctions—no other numismatic author has ever been as bold in exposing Internet scams!
- A comparison of PCGS versus NGC—which service does the market really favor?
- Stunning exposé and bombshell interview on coin "doctoring"
- Special full-color section on artificially toned and doctored coins

and much, much more!

Sight-Unseen Activity Bumpy Post ANA Saints Increase Despite Lower Spot

Dealers that do business in the sight-unseen market usually expect to have their Bids hit immediately following coin shows, especially major coin shows. The American Numismatic Association's annual summer convention and public auctions definitely count as a major show. Often, in the days and weeks following a coin show and/or auction, dealers that have participated at these events need to raise cash so they can pay their bills on time. So, they usually sell some coins in the sight-unseen market because it is a fast and easy way to keep liquid. We know that many dealers left New York without being able to spend all the money that they had allocated for this numismatic event. So they actually left New York with more money than they intended because they were unable to find and buy all the coins that they wanted. Consequently, those dealers Bidding sight-unseen have reported "fewer sales" (hits) than they expected. However, the number of Trades jumped considerably after that initial anomaly. They, like the dealers that attended the ANA need coins for their customers too. These sight-unseen Bidders must constantly reevaluate their current Bids and decide what action, if any, they should take. If they aren't able to buy enough coins at the present Bid levels they may choose to raise Bid again hoping to be hit on a few coins. Even though they may have to pay more for some coins, they do say that this situation is a good sign for the market. It tells them that this bull market is for real.

This week, like last week, we are receiving mixed signals from some segments of the market. The discounting that was evident last week is continuing, although to a lesser degree. At the same time, some dealers are increasing their Bids for select coins while others are comfortable with maintaining the current levels with supporting Bids. On the discount side, a wide variety of coins are being sold at reduced levels. Several coins were "let go" at auction in the last month at far below posted sight-unseen Bid levels as seen in our Market columns. Auctions and coins offered from fixed price lists are responsible for the majority of the minus signs. Dealers are often willing to "blow out" some of the coins that are hanging around their shops too long. They need to raise cash for a variety of reasons but the important thing is keeping one's inventory fresh. Dealers know that after their general customers have seen their list, they are quick to see what additions are evident when the new list appears in the mail. So, dealers in an effort to avoid disappointing their customers try to keep an ever changing inventory of interesting coins. So, coins like this may be sold even if the dealer has to take a loss. Only a few Silver Commemems, Proof Gold, Mercury Dimes, Walking Liberty Halves and Morgan Dollars are displaying minus signs this week.

On the plus side, dealers continue to tell us that they need coins very badly. Demand is strong with buyers growing increasingly impatient because supplies are so thin. At the same time the customer base continues to expand while further exacerbating this imbalance. Consequently, we see several areas with plus signs. Like last week, the plus side is doing better than the minus although the gap has narrowed. Some of the areas that are increasing are all so familiar to us as they have been doing well throughout the year. Buffalo Nickels are a prime example. The number of serious collectors putting together registry sets lies at the heart of demand. Many of the semi-key and key dates of this series remain in short supply and it will take strong Bids to flush out some of those completed or near completed sets. The continued plus signs are the result of the supply and demand equations inability to reach an equilibrium. Matte Proof Buffaloes are also strong. Morgan Dollars are receiving increased Bids for mid-priced dates in MS63 and MS64. Generally, Dollars priced between $100 and $500 are needed. However, two semi-keys, 1893-CC and 1904, are this week's exceptions. Walkers are also displaying some plus signs in the higher grades. Activity is certainly evident among Gold Type with plus signs dominating. Even though Gold Spot has been less than spectacular, languishing under $310 per ounce as this is written, common date $20 Saints are increasing, sight-unseen, in MS61 thru MS65 for both NGC and PCGS.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity [illegible] nationally reported sight unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid [illegible] Asks, Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly [illegible] of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets.
Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit on a sight basis.

MARKET LISTINGS

MARKET columns reflect the latest dealer-to-dealer selling prices seen in the market, based on monitoring Low Asks or Last Trades from wholesale trading networks, sell lists, [illegible] and other sources of wholesale transactions. Auction prices realized or retail trading information are used to adjust prices for infrequently traded issues. The Publisher warrants that it has exercised due diligence; presently, there is no practicable method of following all wholesale postings or transactions. Readers should be aware that there is no implied guaranty or belief that the prices listed are actually representative of the current market value of any coin; listing does not guarantee that such a coin is now available for purchase or that it was actually available at the time the Market price was posted. Due to the volatile nature of the market, current values may be greater or less than the market price listed. A higher grade coin might display a lower Market level than a lower grade specimen, due to limited sell information. Listing Policy. During the thirty days prior to publication we track the lowest sales-related price in the marketplace. Last Trade information normally takes precedence over Low Asks, except when a lower Ask is posted during the last week before publication. We delete stagnant Market prices which are lower than current Bid. Since the timeliness of the information is important, we use the following timing symbols: "w" Lowest asking price during the week prior to publication (*w*eek old); "m" Lowest asking price during the previous three weeks (*m*onth old); "t" *T*rade during the most recent month; "lm" Lowest asking price appearing *l*ast *m*onth; "lt" *T*rade appearing *l*ast month; "ot" *T*rade older than 2 months; " " a blank, for all Market prices older than two months; "a" for auction transactions; "oa" auction older than 1 month.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN albeit on a sight basis

Higher Bids For Walkers Buying Side Of Market Improving

Most dealers agree that today's rare coin market and its prospects for the future are exceptional. Dealers seem to tell us nearly every day how "really great" the market is for them. Usually, they do qualify their exuberance by telling us how tough it is to buy coins. There is no problem selling coins because demand is just fabulous. This time, dealers are telling us that improvement is now being seen on the buying side of the equation as well. What happened? Are coins starting to appear on the market? The simple answer is yes. One east coast dealer said that rare coins are now starting to hit the market from individuals that have seen their coins increase in value. Consequently, they are willing to sell some of them and take the profit. Of course, many are using those funds to plow back into the market for other coins that they want. The bigger reason cited may lie in the boldness of dealer Bids for the right coins. Dealers knew that they needed to pay strong money to buy these coins that were hidden away. So, they have stepped-up to the plate and hit the home run by paying money that sellers require to part with their holdings. Dealers are willing to pay what it takes because they know the importance of having fresh material. We know that these coins lead to quick sales. Those dealers that have paid "too much" in the past for select coins are now being rewarded in big time sales and profits for their actions.

However, one astute dealer has noticed that the gap between the sight-unseen and the sight-seen market is widening at the present time. It is important to understand that both the sight-unseen and the sight-seen markets are increasing. Still, dealers believe that the sight-seen market is increasing at a greater percentage than the sight-unseen. They believe that new collectors entering the market are following the concept of collecting by building sets. New buyers seem to be putting greater emphasis on the collecting aspect rather than the investment aspect. Yet, they know that the potential to profit from this activity is also good. Building registry sets has become extremely popular today by creating public competition among collectors. For these reasons, a few dealers believe that the sight-unseen market is reflecting some weakened demand. However, this is only a perception as it compares to the powerful sight-seen market. Still, the sight-unseen market continues to regularly display more plus than minus signs (297 to 7 this week), and it has maintained this plus count advantage for the majority of the year.

This week's action in the sight-unseen market is a continuation of aggressive Bidding. Silver Commemorative demand is specifically targeting the higher end of the Mint State grades. This should not come as any surprise because many Commems were carefully saved as collectibles with only a few ever entering circulation. Dealers are increasing Bids for NGC Silver Commems in MS64 thru MS66. Some of these dealers believe that several of these issues are undervalued compared to their PCGS counterpart. Dealers like to buy coins that represent a good value and at the present time, these NGC Commems are just what the doctor ordered. Walking Liberty Half Dollars are also realizing increased sight-unseen Bids. As we have seen before, dealers are targeting the later dates of the series. Of course they would like to buy the tough early dates, but they are realistic as these dates are very expensive. We see 111 plus to 0 minus signs for the Walkers this week. That should tell you something about the strength of this series. Buffalo Nickels and Morgan Dollars are two popular areas of the market also demonstrating continued sight-unseen Bid increases. For both these series, the interested buyers continue to increase Bid for the same select dates that they have been targeting for some time. Semi-key and key date Buffalo Nickels are higher in MS65 and better grades. These are the tough dates that collectors are chasing to complete their collections. Dealers are doing their best to supply them but it has been a difficult road. Similarly, dealers are trying to buy "CC" Morgan Dollars. Increases are occurring in several dates from this popular branch Mint. We do note that Bids are strongest in the lower Mint State grades with nice jumps appearing for the key, 1879-CC with the normal Mintmark reverse.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit on a sight basis.

Stronger Sight-Unseen Bids Prevalent Commems, Dollars & Buffaloes Move Upward

September is off to a good start with dealers expressing their extreme optimism with the rare coin market. This month marks a transition from summer to the usually active fall season. The summer of 2002 has been very strong for rare coins and one that will be remembered for many years. Of course, it is highlighted by the sale of the 1933 $20 Saint-Gaudens and its record breaking price at public auction in New York. Currently, business has been strong and dealers are busy trying to build inventory. Many new customers are entering this market after receiving their initial exposure to rare coins from television home shopping and the internet. Most of them are interested in specific coin designs that they find attractive. Many of them even remember finding examples of these denominations and designs in circulation when they were younger. Sometimes, it's a partially completed collection of coins handed down from a relative that captures their interest. The circulating State Quarter program has done wonders in stimulating interest in coins from child to parent and visa versa. A lot of this demand, especially the new collector demand is a contributing factor to the insufficient supply and subsequent surge in prices we are experiencing. However, today's buyers are more educated about the rare coin market and those that aren't, if they are wise, seek out the vital information they need. To this end, dealers are offering assistance to many new semi-knowledgeable customers to help them traverse the turbulent waters of the coin market. These dealers are also ready to bring up to speed those collectors that have been away from the coin market for many years. These returning buyers need to be re-schooled and learn the new realities of slabbed coins, population reports and the importance of eye appeal just to name a few. Dealers expect the demand to continue strong this fall, considering the growing collector base and the strong selling season this summer, which is typically a quiet part of the year. The weakness in the stock market and the relatively low interest rates is also fueling this optimism. Scared money is out there looking for a safer place to reside. We know that a least a small percentage of these funds is entering the rare coin market.

This week, select areas of the sight-unseen market are the object of that strong demand. On the market side, dealers are raising their asking price for select coins. Morgan Dollars have been doing very well this year as it is a favorite with many coin collectors. The Carson City Mint issues are, right now, head-and-shoulders above the rest. Demand for "CC" Mints is strong and getting even stronger. Bids continue to inch higher, week after week for many of these dates. The GSA "CC" Dollars are also extremely hot. Dealers are aggressively increasing their Bids trying to obtain examples in anticipation of having them professionally graded. This demand, combined with the strong collector demand, is keeping these Dollars hot. Evidence is seen by how fast transactions are completed when they are offered for sale on the electronic dealer networks. We would also like to point out the increase to $26 Bid for common date Morgans in MS63 for NGC and PCGS examples. The strength of the Morgans is easily seen by the 102 to 0 plus/minus count this week.

Silver Commemoratives are especially hot this week with an equally strong 104 to 0 plus/minus count. This series has been a favorite with collectors for many years. Dealers tell us that demand is very strong and supplies have been decreasing. They tell us that it is difficult for them to buy the coins they need to satisfy the current demand. Increases are strongest for Commems grading MS65 and better. Most buyers feel comfortable obtaining quality Commems at affordable prices, even some at the MS67 level. Buffalo Nickels are certainly no stranger to being a hot issue. We have witnessed strong demand for this popular series throughout the year. Walking Liberty Half Dollars are also attracting Bidders. Demand remains strong because collector/investors appreciate the design, the rarity and the affordability of many of the late dates. Most other areas of the sight-unseen market remain solid. Sight-unseen supporting Bids are found with regularity. Mint State Type is a prime example, as this segment of the market is full of supporting sight-unseen Bids.

CERTIFIED COIN DEALER newsletter

CCDN — a weekly report on the Sight-Unseen certified market published by the Coin Dealer Newsletter (est. 1963)

Vol. XVII No. 37 September 13, 2002 Single copy price $4.00

Hot Market: Rare To Common Sight-Unseen Bids Target Expensive Coins

The exceptionally strong demand that we have witnessed this week in the sight-seen market is now making its presence known in the sight-unseen market. Dealer optimism, that has been growing throughout 2002, is still running very high. Many of them know that retail sales are strong with buyers waiting in the wings, patiently, for the right coin to come along. For the most part, these buyers are well heeled with significant funds available for rare coins. Many of them are buying rare coins to satisfy their collecting passion and they feel it is a relatively safe place for their money. They know that fortunes can quickly evaporated in today's volatile stock market and they would rather see their money invested in an area that they believe to have less risk. They also believe that rare coins are attractively priced at current levels and represent a store of value. Of course many of them would be happy to see these rare coin investments increase as well. However, they are just as happy to know that hard assets like rare coins aren't subject to declines from bankruptcies and questionable accounting practices that they have experienced in the equity markets.

Type Morgan $1s Grade	11-Jan-02 Bid	13-Sep-02 Bid	% Change
MS63	$25	$26	+ 4%
MS64	$31	$33	+ 6%
MS65	$63	$66	+ 5%
PL63	$33	$31	- 6%
PL64	$46	$49	+ 7%
PL65	$112	$116	+ 4%
DMPL63	$40	$41	+ 2%
DMPL64	$86	$96	+12%
DMPL65	$265	$302	+14%

The sight-unseen market is displaying the usual, as well as some unusual strength this week The unusual strength is coming from some of the more specialized and expensive areas of the market. The Early Gold and the Proof Gold Type charts are alive this week with plus signs appearing. These are expensive, four- and five-figure rare coins and it's not often that we see increased sight-unseen Bids for coins of this caliber. This actually points to the desperate need and immediacy that dealers face trying to obtain material for their customers. Increased Bids are found among these high profile areas of the market because dealers know that they can quickly, and easily sell these rarities for a profit. Simply put, buyers are waiting! For liquidity reasons, dealers usually are not as likely to inventory coins of this nature because of the high cost. However when quick sales are guaranteed, it's a different story. Among Early Gold, the target is $10 Eagles from 1795-1804. Dealers have increased Bid for both the Small Eagle and Heraldic Eagle reverse. The largest percentage increase occurred in the 1795 Small Eagle in AU58 for NGC and PCGS examples. At this level of preservation, dealers know that these coins are seriously undervalued. This Choice AU condition is extremely desirable by collector/investors who cannot afford to pay Mint State money. However, increases are also seen in MS60 and MS63 for those that can pay. Large Eagle $10 Gold is higher in MS60 thru MS63. Increases are also evident among Proof $20 Saint-Gaudens issues.

We also notice exceptionally high demand this week for Mint State Type. Again, Early Type is preferred as dealers try to buy these rare and desirable coins. Buyers clearly want rarity. The initial and second design Types are extremely popular, especially in Mint State. The Flowing Hair and Draped Bust denominations are facing considerable demand today. Dealers are looking to buy examples of Flowing Hair and Bust denominations from Half Dimes thru Dollars (Copper and Gold examples are also sought-after). Increases are occurring for the Silver denominations of these Types in grades from MS61 up to MS65. Most dealers know how truly rare these coins are and so they do not mind raising the bar trying to obtain them. Keep in mind that these high-priced beauties are displaying sight-unseen Bid increases.

Otherwise, the sight-unseen market is finding strong Bids for its usual cast of characters. Select Silver Commemoratives; "CC" and generic Morgan Dollars; generic Peace Dollars; and Proof Type Barber coinage and Trade Dollars are receiving increased Bids. Common date Morgan and Peace Dollars are higher in MS65 condition, and even though the gains are slight it does point to an improving market. It is also a further indication of the expanding collector base. These coins have been among the needs of dealers for some time and we know that sales are occurring with each acquisition. Still, dealers need more to fill the strong demand. Supporting Bids continue to be solid for Buffalo Nickels, Walking Liberty Half Dollars and Proof Singles.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels. www.cdnpublications.com

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.
